Hertford Mercury and Reformer 23 Mar 1861 Much Hadham – Sudden Death
We regret to have to record the sudden demise of Mr John Chambers, veterinary surgeon, of Much Hadham, on Friday morning last. Mr Chambers had up to the last two or three weeks been in the enjoyment of excellent health, except having about that time caught a severe cold. On Friday morning he was seized with a severe attack of a disease of the liver and heart that he had for some time past labored under, and before medical aid could be obtained he expired.
