Chambers, of the Bank of New Zealand, Wellington. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr Gordon Stewart, of Hastings, and attended by her sister, Miss Alexa Stewart, and Miss Edith Chambers, sister of the bridegroom, wore a white dress of Georgette and crepe-de-chine with fishtail lined with pale pink, and trimmed with tiny rosebuds. The bridesmaids were dressed in saxe blue crape and Georgette, with black velvet brassiers. They also wore blue tulle veils with coronet of silver leaves, and carried sheafs of pale pink flowers. Mr A. F. Eilers acted as best man, and Mr Kenneth Stewart as groomsman. After the ceremony Mrs Stewart entertained the guests at the wedding breakfast. The happy couple then left for the South by car, the bride wearing a biscuit gabardine costume faced with lighter shade, with hat to match.
