

Dr John MACLAGAN (c1750-1831)

Caledonian Mercury 25 Feb 1809 Farm to Let

To be let for 19 Crops, and entered to on the 6th March 1809, The Lands of Mains of Memus and Hillhead, consisting of about 200 arable acres and near to 100 acres of pasture and moss in the parish of Tannadice and shire of Forfar, within nine miles of Brechin, six of Forfar, and four of Kirrymuir, all good market towns. The lands has a southern exposure, and fit to carry any kind of crop. All the fields are well watered. There is a Corn Mill on the Mains. The Mains and Hillhead will be let together or separately, as offerers may incline. Every encouragement will be given by the proprietor. Written offers to be given in to Mr Wyllie, writer, Forfar, by the 3d March ... addressed to the Proprietor, Dr MacLagan, to My Wyllie's care.

Caledonian Mercury 2 Apr 1831 Death

At Glenquaich House, Forfarshire, on the 21st ult., Dr John M'Lagan of Glenquaich, for many years physician to the Earl of Breadalbane, and surgeon to the late Royal Highland Local Militia, aged 81yrs