Evening Post 24 Dec 1910 Death and Obituary
On the 24th December, at his residence, Lower Hutt, George McIlvride, senior; aged 73 years.

The death occurred at Lower Hutt, at 10.45 this morning of Mr George M'Ilvride, sen., a very early settler in the Valley. Deceased had been suffering from an internal disorder, for which he was operated on about five months ago. He had been ill ever since. Mr M'Ilvride was twice married, and leaves a widow and ten children – five girls and four boys by the first wife, and one girl by the second wife. Deceased was a general blacksmith, farrier, and wheelwright on the Main road, Lower Hutt. Born in Perthshire, in 1838, he came to Auckland in the ship Andrew Jackson in 1864. Settling in the Hutt, during the following year, he founded the present business, which he carried on until twelve months ago. In local politics he had served as a member of the Lower Hutt School Committee, and as a member of the Licensing Committee. For a great many years he had been a member of the Rose of the Valley Lodge of Oddfellows, of which he was senior trustee up to the time of his death. For about thirty years he had been an elder of the Presbyterian Church. The funeral will leave his late residence on Monday, at 2.30 p.m., for the Presbyterian Cemetery, Blackbridge.
