The Times 13 Jan 1864 Salmon Ova to Australia

To the Editor of the Times: Sir, - I beg leave to return by best thanks to those noblemen and gentlemen who so promptly acceded to my request made through your columns for permission to take unspawned salmon out of their rivers for the purpose of transmitting the ova to Australia. I have also to thank Mr Ffennell, the Chief Commissioner of Salmon Fisheries for England; Mr John Morrison, agent for New Zealand; Mr Frank Buckland, Mr Sackville Phelps, of Machynlleth, North Wales; Mr Edward Glynn, of Newcastle-on-Tyne; Mr Richard Gibson, of Hexham; Mr Patrick Clay, of Berwick-on-Tweed, &c., for the personal aid they have given me, and to Mr Thomas Ashworth for his generous offer of ova from his own breeding-ponds at Galway, which, however, I am afraid to accept, as they have been for some time deposited. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, James A. Youl. Waratah-house, Clapham-park, Jan 12.

P.S. Mr Ramsbottom has caught a good many fine unspawned salmon, but the ova not being ripe enough to take, they were returned to the stream again. No ova have yet been obtained for me.
