Sir Samuel WHITCOMBE (1751-1816)

London Chronicle 24 Jan 1767
A few days ago the Rev. John Whitcombe, M.A., Master of the Free Grammar-School of Haverfordwest, was instituted (on the presentation of Richard Dalton, Esq.,) to the rectory of Walesby, in Lincolnshire, worth 200l. per ann.

Public Advertiser 26 Jan 1767
A few days ago the Rev. John Whitcombe, M.A. late of Baliol College, Oxford, and now Master of the Free Grammar School of Haverfordwest, was instituted (on the Presentation of Richard Dalton, Esq.) to the Rectory of Walesby, in Lincolnshire, worth 200l. per annum.

Morning Chronicle and London Advertiser 22 Jun 1776
June the 17th, 1776. Many authentic accounts having been received of the Distress of the Clergy of the Church of England in North America, the Archbishops and Bishops (with his Majesty's approbation) have opened a Subscription for the Relief; and they doubt not of the concurrence of such of the Laity and Clergy, whose circumstances will allow them to contribute so charitable a design. Subscriptions will be received by Mess. Hoare and Co., Gosling and Co. Bankers, in Fleet-street, and Mess. Drummond and Co. Bankers, at Charing-cross. By subscriptions already received £5978 3s 4d. By the Rev. John Whitcombe, Rector of Walesby £1 1s.

St James's Chronicle or the British Evening Post 2 Jan 1787
Henry Dalton, Esq. of Knaith-Hall, has presented the Rev. John Whitcombe, M.A. to the Rectory of Walesby, Lincolnshire.

The London Chronicle 15 May 1792 Marriage
Monday fe'nnight was married, at Dorton, in Buckinghamshire, the seat of Sir John Aubrey, Bart. Samuel Whitcombe, Esq. of Gloucester, to Miss Aubrey.

St James's Chronicle or the British Evening Post 16 Apr 1799 Death
On the 8th inst, in the Close, at Lincoln, Mrs Whitcombe, wife of the Rev. John Whitcombe, Prebendary of the Cathedral there.

The Morning Chronicle 8 Feb 1814 – from the London Gazette 8 Feb 1814 - Bankrupts
G. Masters, of Newport, Monmouthshire, brewer, Feb 21, 22 and March 22, at the London Inn and Talbot Tavern, Bristol. Attornies, Sir Samuel Whitcombe and Mr King, Serjeants-Inn.

The Morning Chronicle 12 May 1814 – from the London Gazette 30 Apr 1814 – Bankrupts
R. Carter, of Morton, Gloucestershire, dealer, May 17, 18 and June 11, at one, at the London Inn and Talbot tavern, Bristol. Attornies, Sir Samuel Whitcombe and King, Serjeant's Inn.

The Morning Chronicle 5 Sep 1814 Sales by Auction
Bucks – Capital Freehold Farm, between Windsor and Maidenhead, with immediate possession – By Mr Daniel Smith, at his Rooms, in Alderman's-walk, Tomorrow, at 12, in Lots. All that Freehold Estate, well known as West Town Farm (now in the occupation of Mr Joseph Trumper, under an agreement to quit at Michaelmas next); comprising nearly two hundred acres of capital meadow and arable land, with good house, yards, and every requisite out-buildings, situated near the High Bath-road, in the parish of Dorney Burnham and Hitcham, a picturesque and respectable part of Buckinghamshire, surrounded by excellent roads, and the famous markets of Maidenhead, Windsor, and Uxbridge. The homestead, encircled by about 100 acres, will form one lot, for a Gentleman wishing for a profitable country residence particularly desirable – The estate may be viewed with permission of the tenant, and descriptive particulars had at the neighbouring Inns; of Thomas Bickland, Esq. Lanby; of Sir Samuel Whitcombe, Griffith and Phillpott, Gloucester; of Sir Samuel Whitcombe and King, Serjeant's-inn, Fleet-street; and of Daniel Smith and Sons, surveyors, Alderman's-walk, near Broad-street, Bishopsgate Church, London; and Windsor, Berks, at whose offices plans may be seen.

The Asiatic Journal 1 Jun 1816 page 619 Marriage
Capt. Ross, R.M., to Miss Whitcombe, daughter of Sir Sam. Whitcombe.

The Asiatic Journal 1 Sep 1816 page 329 Death
At Thornton-house, Greenwich, in consequence of a fall from his horse, Sir Sam. Whitcombe, Knight.

La Belle Assemblée – Bell's Court and Fashionable Magazine 1 Dec 1821 p284 Marriage
At Melksham, Henry, youngest son of the Hon. Colonel Seymour, and grandson of the late Lord Francis Seymour, to Charlotte, youngest daughter of the late Sir Samuel Whitcombe.

Jackson's Oxford Journal 12 Nov 1825 Marriage
J. A. Whitcombe, Esq., to Julia, third daughter of David Walters, Esq., of Barnwood House, near Glocester.

Gentleman's Magazine 1832 Obituary p657
Wilts – Lately. At Corsham, aged 26, Lieut. Wm. Guise Whitcombe, 2d W. I. regiment, youngest son of late Sir Samuel Whitcombe

Gentleman's Magazine 1834 Obituary p558
Sept 28. Mary, wife of Thos. Phillips, Esq., of Drumbrain House, co. Monaghan, eldest dau. of the late Sir Samuel Whitmore.

The Belfast News-letter 17 Oct 1834 Death
Sept. 28, Mary Martha Anna, wife of Thomas Phillips, of Drumbraine House, in the county of Monaghan, Esq. and daughter of the late Sir Samuel Whitcombe.

The Bristol Mercury 18 Oct 1834 Death
Mary, wife of Thos. Phillips, Esq., of Drumbrain House, co. Monaghan, Ireland, and eldest daughter of the late Sir Samuel Whitcombe, of Gloucester.

John Bull 26 Aug 1843 p544 Death
On the 19th, at Sherston Vicarage, Wilts, Lady Whitcombe, relict of the late Sir Samuel Whitcombe, aged 74